

Michal Ziloni-Hadad |

Tel. 03-6089182
Fax. 03-7101684
E-Mail. Michal.ziloni-hadad@goldfarb.com
Department. Labor and Corporate Immigration Department

Adv. Ziloni-Hadad is a partner in our Labor and Corporate Immigration Department. She specializes in collective and private labor law, as well as administrative law.

Adv. Ziloni-Hadad specializes in collective work relations, including advising and representing employers in negotiating the signing, renewal and cancelation of collective agreements, as well as managing crisis situations and collective work disputes, including injunctions related to strikes, privatization, ownership transfer and restructuring. She represents clients in collective negotiations and agreements, including before the Finance Ministry's Department of Salary and Employment Agreements.

Adv. Ziloni-Hadad advises private and corporate clients on a broad array of labor law matters, including employment agreements, legal opinions relating to work relations, employment termination, employment related rights, contracts with service providers, retroactive contractor claims for employee rights and more.

Adv. Ziloni-Hadad is experienced in representing clients in dispute resolution proceedings before the Directorate General of Labor in relation to work disputes, representing before the Employment of Women Unit, obtaining special permits for employment or termination of employment related to the Hours of Work and Rest Law, and more.

Adv. Ziloni-Hadad has long years of experience in representing clients in both collective and private labor litigation before district labor courts, the National Labor Court and the High Court of Justice, as well as class actions.

Adv. Ziloni-Hadad lectures on labor law matters in the Israel Bar Association's advanced study programs and other forums.

Education LL.B., College of Management Academic Studies, 1996

Bar Admission Israel Bar Association, 1998